Capitol Square to close for Tropical Storm Isaias

~ Expected high winds, heavy rains could cause safety concerns ~

RICHMOND – The Virginia Department of General Services today announced that Capitol Square will be closed Tuesday, Aug. 4, due to expected high winds and isolated and heavy rainfall from Tropical Storm Isaias.

The closure is necessary to protect individuals from potential hazards, such as blowing debris and falling limbs and trees. Capitol Square will close at 7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 3, and is expected to reopen at 6 a.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 5.

State employees should monitor the Department of Human Resource Management for emergency office closings. Employees and the public should monitor the DGS website at dgs.virginia.gov or follow on Twitter at @DGSVirginia for information on building and grounds closures.
